

Cultural News Colombia

December 2020

El futuro
es de todos

Cancillería
Embajada de Colombia
en Austria

This month we continue to celebrate 100 years of diplomatic relations between Austria and Colombia with three activities. We hope you will accompany us

The birds of Colombia arrive to Styria

Did you know that Colombia has the greatest bird diversity in the world?

Unibirds is a visual revelation of our surroundings, a connection to nature through birds. Thanks to the technology of ArtVive, the Colombian artists Sergio Mantilla and Miguel Chaparro make it possible for the visitors to experience the birds' behavior. A project with the support of Stattegg's mayor, Andreas Kahr-Walzl and the town councilor with Colombian roots, Juanita Guerra.

Date: From December 10 to January 12

Where: Town hall square of Stattegg, Styria

Outdoor art installation with ample space for social distancing

With the support of:

This past November 26, the Embassy of Colombia in Austria and ICDO launched Mani-Fiesta. Mani-Fiesta is an interactive work of art through which the participants can convey a message to protect and conserve nature. Mani-Fiesta was created by the Colombian artist Pedro Ruiz and seeks the reconciliation with our habitat.

You would like to be part of Mani-Fiesta?

- Follow @ icdo.at on Instagram where we will be talking about the campaign every day until December 10.
- Use the Instagram filters Mani-Fiesta. Watch video.
- Publish in your stories and/or post
- Tag @ icdo.at, use the hashtags #ICDOManifiesta #ManiFiestaPedroRuiz and ICDO will include you in their stories.
- Tag your friends and followers to invite them to join the campaign as well.
- In case you missed the launch video you can watch it on Facebook @ICDO.at (Forward live event to minute 3:30)

El futuro
es de todos

Embajada
Colombiana en Austria
y Suiza